

W

WBS	A work breakdown structure (WBS) is a key project deliverable that organizes the team's work into manageable sections
Waterfall method	A type of life cycle where the project is completed sequentially in distinct stages and moved step by step towards project completion
Weighted average cost of capital (WACC)	Is the minimum average return that an organisation must earn on an existing asset base to satisfy its capital providers (creditors, owners, etc). See also cost of capital Source: 7 th Ed. of the APM Body of Knowledge
Whole-life costs	The fixed and variable capital and operational costs required to develop, use and terminate a product or asset Source: 7 th Ed. of the APM Body of Knowledge
Work package	A group of related activities that are defined at the same level within a work breakdown structure. Often a grouping of work to produce a single deliverable or component on a project
Workplace stress	The adverse reaction that people have to excessive pressure or other types of demand placed upon them Source: 7 th Ed. of the APM Body of Knowledge